ESTANGIA WILL CELEBRATE THE FOURTH OF JULY

Plans are Laid and Committees Named at Meeting last Night to Arrange for Monster Celebration.

A meeting of the business men and citizens of Estancia was held last night at Neal Jenson's office, to make arrangements for the celebration of the Fourth of July here. A large crowd was in attendance, showing that the people are interested in such a celebration.

J. L. Stubblefield was chosen as chairman, with Neal Jenson as secretary. A committee on entertainment and parade was named consisting of the following: H. L. Bainum, J. C. Peterson, A. L. Bilsing, J. P. Kennedy and J. N. Bush.

Committee on Finance: L. A. Rousseau, R. C. Howell, Earl Scott, F. L. Burrus and E. W. Roberson.

Committee on Advertising: Neal Jenson, Willie Elgin, John Berkshire, J. S. Kelly and R. C. Howell.

It was decided to have a street parade at ten o'clock in the morning, asking all automobiles, buggies, equestrians, etc. to join in the parade.

Entertainments and sports of various kinds including baseball, foot races, pony races, etc. will be arranged for the afternoon.

Basket dinner under the trees at the park will be a feature of the day.

All business houses will be closed from ten a.m. to 4 p.m. Those wishing to do their shopping will please take notice that the clerks in the stores may enjoy a holiday as well as the rest.

Busy Day at Local Postoffice

Sunday was a busy day at the postoffice. The train from the south brought in six large bags of mail matter, which contained over nine hundred pieces of mail. The Postmaster and his assistant worked for several hours, almost losing their dinner in the game. Yesterday noon's mail brought in four more bags, among which were about three hundred letters besides a lot of papers and magazines. The postoffice being a good indicator of the business of the town, there certainly must be something doing in Estancia.

Weather Report

Fair weather today.

Wiggins wants Another trial

Las Vegas, N. M., May 22—Joe Wiggins, who was convicted by a jury Saturday night for breaking into and entering a house in the night-time, in connection with the kidnapping of little Waldo Rogers in this city on March 29 last, has through his attorneys filed a motion for a new hearing. The motion will in all probability be over ruled by the court, and the prisoner sentenced on Thursday of this week.

Farmers Own Automobiles

The farmers in several Kansas counties own more autos than are owned by the people living in the cities of the same counties. For example Reno county farmers own five hundred of the buzz wagons, while the citizens of Hutchinson the principal city of the county own less. In Ford county the farmers own 300 joy wagons, while the city folks have less than that number to their credit on the assessor's books. Looks like the farmers of "Windy old Kansas" are coming into their own yet.

Birthday Party

Miss Delphine Souders gave a Birthday Party last night for Miss Jeffie Duke. A number of the young people went out to the Souders home south of town where a jolly evening was spent in games. Refreshments were served by the hostess, the party breaking up at a late hour, wishing Miss Jeffie many happy returns of the day.

Merchants will take Half Holiday

Advertising Pays

When the dimpled baby's hungry, what does the baby do?
It doesn't lie serenely and merely sweetly coo;
The hungry baby bellows with all its little might
Till someone gives it something to curb its appetite;
The infant with the bottle which stills its fretful cries,
A lesson plainly teaches—It pays to advertise.

The lamb lost on the hillside when darkness closes round
Stands not in silence trembling and waiting to be found,
Its plaintive bleating echoes across the vales and meads
Until the shepherd hears it, and, hearing, gently heeds,
And when its fears are ended, as on his breast it lies,
The lamb has made this patent: It pays to advertise.

The fair and gently maiden who loves the bashful boy,
Assumes when in his presence a manner that is coy;
She blushes and she trembles till he perceives at last,
And clasps her closely to him and gladly holds her fast,
And as he bends to kiss her and she serenely sighs,
The fact is demonstrated: It pays to advertise.

With the K. G. S. Club

The editor and family took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Amos Kuykendall, who entertained the "Kentucky Gable Society" also. Having been born within a few miles of the Ohio River on the Illinois side, we were taken in as an "honorary" member of the society. A splendid dinner, including some of the early vegetables right from the garden was more than enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Kutchin had their instruments with them and entertained the crowd with instrumental and vocal music. The afternoon passed so quickly that we were loath to believe our watch when five o'clock came. That the Kentuckians have the knack of making one feel at home, was proven by the afternoon's pleasure. That there were twenty-three who partook of the dinner did not act as a "skidoo", except to the victuals on the table, which disappeared as if by magic. The invitations to join them again will be accepted more than willingly.

Andrews says It will Pass

Delegate W. H. Andrews wires that he expects to be able to get congress to consider the bill affirming the right of irrigation districts to issue bonds in excess of four per cent before the end of the week. It is before both houses on favorable committee reports.

WILL VOTE ON STATEHOOD AT 3 p.m. TODAY

Washington, D. C., May 22—The joint resolution in regard to statehood for Arizona and New Mexico, will come up for vote at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. At today's session the house resumed the debate on the measure. Representative Crumpacker of Indiana made a forceful speech against the measure, claiming that since both territories had already adopted the constitutions, they should not be compelled to vote on them again. In the case of Arizona, he was willing to have the recall left to a vote of the people a second time, but denied the New Mexicans the right to a second vote on the amending clause.

Portland of Missouri spoke at length in favor of the joint resolution, showing that it was only fair to New Mexico to give her people a right to vote on the amending clause, if Arizona is to be allowed a second vote on the recall.

Delegate Andrews made a short address in which he claimed that since the constitution had been adopted by a majority of 18,900, it should not be put to a vote the second time. The attendance in the House today was very slim, the members apparently having heard all they care to of the matter until the time for the vote to be taken.

Lorimer will be Investigated

Washington, D. C., May 22—Prompt and sweeping will be the investigation of the manner in which Senator Lorimer of Illinois secured his seat in the U. S. Senate, according to the report of the senate committee on privileges and elections. The republicans in the senate attempted to kill the resolution calling for the investigation, but in vain. The democrats threw their support to the measure which is a substitute for the LaFollette measure. Senator LaFollette had given notice last week that he would call up his measure today. Senator Gillingham, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, reported the substitute for the LaFollette measure. The substitute will be adopted.

Ans. Most of them are married and haven't the nerve to laugh.

PEACE REIGNS IN NORTHERN END OF MEXICO

Juarez Mexico, May 22,—Tranquility reigns in northern Mexico for the first time in six months. The news has been sent to the various portions of both federal and rebel armies that the peace terms have been signed and that hostilities will cease.

Madero will await the resignation of President Diaz before proceeding to the capital City, which is scheduled to take place within a week. At that time Senor De La Barra will take up the reins of the government. The insurrecto army will be gradually disbanded. The object of this is apparent, for in case a large number of the soldiers were sent home at once, with nothing to do, the matter of their control would be a difficult one.

Trouble is anticipated in Lower California, and General Orozco is prepared with a band of tried followers to move to that place at once and quell any disturbances.

A message has been received from Senor de La Barra, in which he thanks Madero for his congratulations and expresses the hope that all parties, federal and rebel alike, will work harmoniously for the reconstruction of their country along more liberal lines than heretofore.

LOCAL W. G. T. U. ANNIVERSARY

Invitations are out for the Second Anniversary Exercises of the local W. C. T. U. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Collier, east of town. The affair will occur on Friday night, May 26th, from 7:30 to 10 o'clock. The invitation which is worded in the usual form closes with these suggestive words: "This being a Birthday Party, you are requested to bring half as many pennies as you are years old." Doubtless the affair will be interesting, and provide a pleasant evening for those lucky enough to receive invitations.

Memorial Sermon by Dr. Bright

Rev. S. Alonzo Bright, superintendent of Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church will preach the Memorial Sermon on next Sunday morning at the local Methodist Church. Next Sunday is the date for the regular Quarterly Meeting Service, but the doctor has kindly consented to unite the two on Sunday morning. As Dr. Bright is a forceful as well as an interesting speaker, the house will in all probability be crowded.
